

Groundwater Level Trends*

Levels stable for most wells

*Ohio Department of Natural Resources Well H-1 in Hamilton County. The graph shows groundwater levels have been stable for a long period of time. This stability is typical for most wells in the buried valley aquifer.

Source: Ohio Department of Natural Resources